Who YOU are:

You are an enthusiastic, goal-driven youth, with career aspirations in veterinary medicine, conservation, or similar discipline, who's not afraid to get your hands dirty, and work hard, to gain valuable professional experience.

You are a dedicated team-player, who wants to contribute to a small team, and leverage your unique talents to support the success of Wildlife Rescue's Nestling and Fledgling program.

You embrace the opportunity to bring new ideas and innovative approaches to a not-for-profit driven by our Mission, Vision and Values which we live and breathe every day.

Who WE are:

Established in 1979, Wildlife Rescue Association of BC is a leader in the rehabilitation of wild animals and is committed to educating the public on how to coexist peacefully with wildlife. Located in Burnaby, BC, we are western Canada's busiest wildlife rehabilitation centre, with over 6,000 animal patients admitted each year.

The Wildlife Rescue Association of BC is located on the ancestral and unceded homelands of the hən̓q̓əmi̓nəm̓ and Skwxwú7mesh speaking peoples. We are grateful for the opportunity to be on this beautiful, shared territory.

Highlight of Key Responsibilities:

- Provide day to day care for nestling and fledgling songbirds (including hand feeding, cleaning, and handling)
- Keep detailed records and observations on the nestlings and fledglings in care
- Setup and clean habitats
- Create and maintain enrichment
- Diet preparation
- Assist with volunteer and staff training
- Conduct daily observations and communicate concerns to senior staff

Key Qualifications & Experience

- Previous animal handling experience, an asset
- Excellent communication, organization, and time management skills
- Ability to prioritize and problem-solve
- Willingness to take initiative and work independently
- Open availability (evenings, weekends, and statutory holidays)
- OR the right combination of skills and experience—we are looking for the right fit for our team and encourage all interested candidates to apply.
